Union Civil Protection Mechanism Training Programme

What is it?

To strengthen cooperation and coordination among its Member and Participating States in the field of civil protection, the Union Civil Protection Mechanism (UCPM) offers a dynamic and comprehensive training programme tailored to specific target groups through its Knowledge Network.

The UCPM Training Programme supplements the national training offered to experts and intervention teams by their home country or organisation to better prepare them for international deployments under the Union Mechanism.

Who can participate?

The UCPM Training Programme is open to civil protection and disaster management actors from the Europe Union, UCPM Participating States, partner organisations and third countries interested in improving their knowledge and skills on the European Civil Protection.

What training is on offer?

The UCPM Training Programme offers a wide range of courses from basic to high-level or refresher training. Ad-hoc training addresses emerging needs such as training for mass burns teams or for integrating responder teams onsite in an emergency.

The specialised joint EC-UN courses are designed to prepare participants for specific deployments like environmental or medical emergency mission.

E-learning modules are available on different disaster management topics and in different languages, from stand-alone courses such as Cultural Sensitivity and Gender or Information Management to pre-learning for the training courses.

The training programme gives access to a community of highly skilled peers ready to support and engage in UCPM operations and activities.

How can I register?

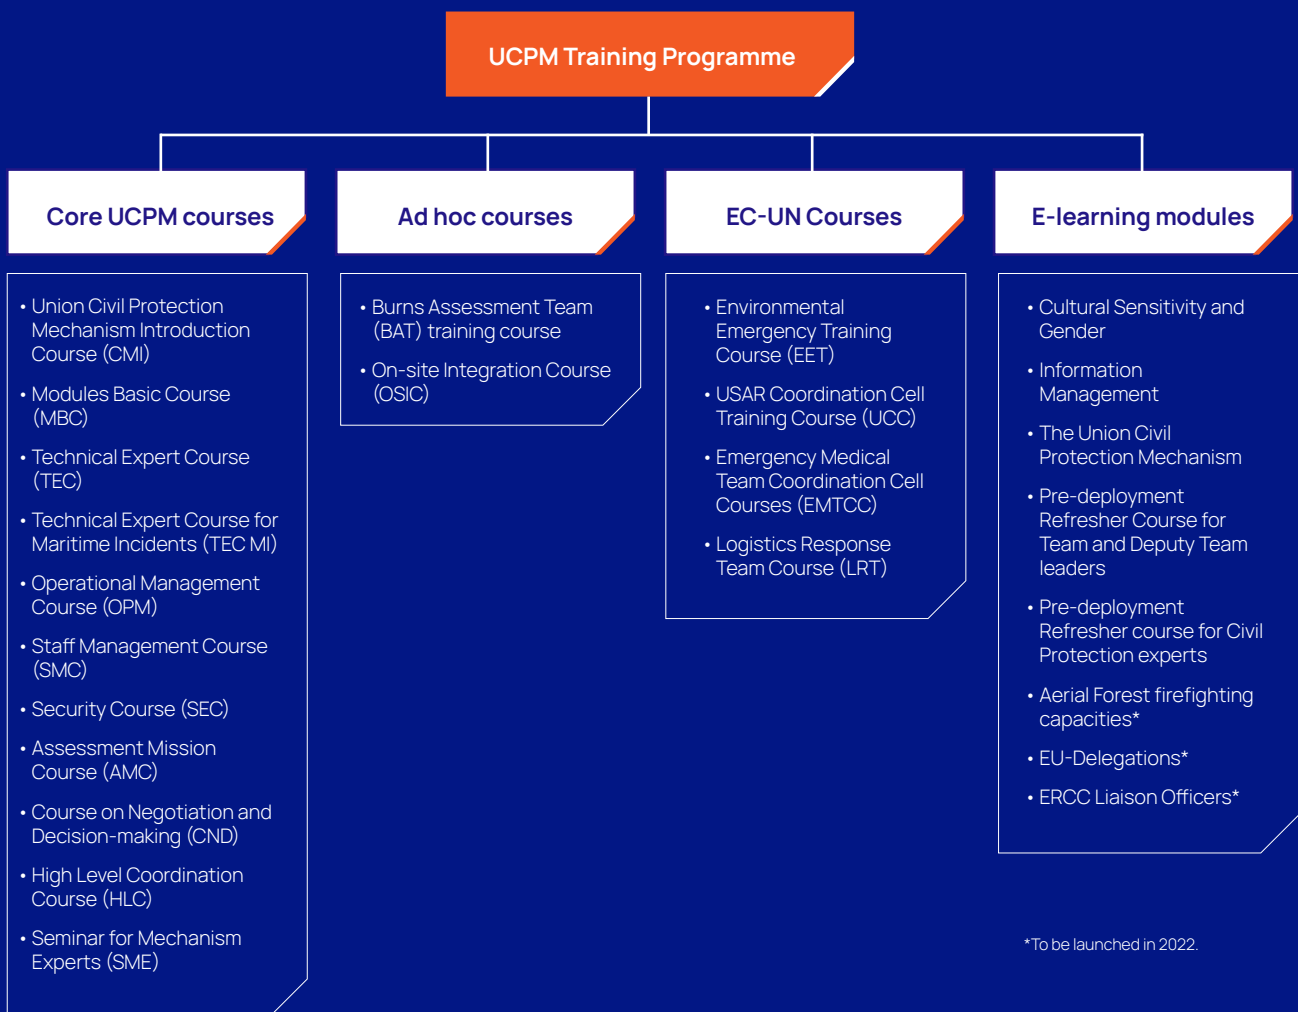

Self-instructed e-learning modules are accessible upon registration on the platform: <https://ucpm.e-learning.cc>

To take part in the training courses, participants must be nominated by their National Training Coordinator or National Focal Point (third countries).
