Example: Where to find the Mechanism Introduction Course for EU Delegations and ECHO Field Offices staff?

All courses relevant to the UCPM Training and Exercises Programme can be found scrolling down the programme page.

Once you have found the course, click “enroll” to start the course.

Another way to find the course is by using the search function “Explore by topic”

The course will be located under “fragility, crisis situations & resilience”.

The screenshot shows the 'Explore by topic' search function. The search bar contains the text 'What would you like to learn today?' and 'maxlength="'. Below the search bar, a grid of topics is displayed. The topic 'fragility, crisis situations & resilience' is highlighted with a red circle. The other topics in the grid are: agriculture & rural development, employment, trade and the economy, maritime & fisheries, children & youth, food safety & security, migration & integration, cities, urban & regional development, data, digital & technology, gender, inequality & inclusion, nutrition, health & wellbeing, education & capacity building, language & culture, public sector leadership, innovation & knowledge sharing, energy, climate change & the environment, and law, justice, fundamental and human rights, & democracy.
