PROCULTHER-4ALL

From 2019 to 2026, the PROCULTHER initiatives, funded by DG ECHO, have progressively shaped a comprehensive and structured approach for the inclusion of cultural heritage protection in disaster risk management processes.

Building on these achievements, PROCULTHER-4ALL is the next step in strengthening cultural heritage protection through a whole-of-society approach within the Union Civil Protection Mechanism-UCPM.

How PROCULTHER-4ALL aligns cultural heritage protection with the EU preparedness framework

- Contributing to the full transition towards a comprehensive preparedness approach
- Further consolidating of the PROCULTHER Community by actively involving local communities, civil society organisations, volunteers, citizens, and private-sector stakeholders
- Establishing a shared technical and operational framework to support the integration of a whole-of-society approach into the protection of cultural heritage
- Increasing societal awareness and resilience through broader engagement and participation
- Enhancing prevention, preparedness and response capacities within the Union Civil Protection Mechanism
